Terms and Conditions

1 Students are required to attend all lectures, classes and tests and to submit written work and complete self initiated and instructed research work on time as required by lecturers and tutors. Attendance below 80% will be reported to the main office and may result in the student being expelled.
2 FAD reserves the right to expel a student if he/she does not fulfil the above requirements or for behavior disruptive to the general conduct of the College. In such cases no refund of fees will be given.
3 Enrolment for a course, together with the payment of the required deposit, creates a binding agreement to follow the course and to pay the full fee.
4 In the event of a cancellation for whatever reason, the following will apply:-
   a) The deposit and fees are not refundable. However, under special circumstances primarily approved by FAD, the student can extend his intake to the immediately next one. In such a scenario he will have to sit through the entire selection test once again and incur an additional intake transfer fees of Rs. 1000/- at the time of requesting the transfer.
   b) Cancellation must be made in writing.
   c) Where a cancellation is received after commencement of the course there will be no refund (regardless of visa refusal).
5 Please Refer to the Prospectus, Academic Handbook & Institutional Handbook for rules and regulations.
6 While course start and end dates are not expected to change the college reserves the right to alter dates. Those changes will in no way affect the other terms and conditions of the student's contract with the college or the course content and delivery.
7 The Prospectus and website is correct at the time of printing/publishing but is subject to alteration.

Declaration: I confirm that, to the best of my knowledge, the information given in this form is correct and complete. I have read the instructions, in particular those relating to this section. I understand what they say, and I agree to abide by the conditions set out there, which I accept as conditions of this application.
